Easter Novelties at The Little Book Store.

Special Easter services will be held at the First Lutheran church at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held tomorrow night. Several matters of importance are to be acted upon.

Final papers of citizenship were yesterday granted to Henrik Eriksson, a native of Finland. First papers were issued to Samuel Aleksanter Asgainen, a native of Finland.

A mass meeting of Columbia river fishermen was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing matters of interest to the fishermen. Secretary Lornsen said the price question was not considered, but that only union matters were brought up.

Nothing of particular interest to the general public transpired.

Some tight fingered person yesterday visited the office of County Clerk Clinton and carried off a valuable umbrella belonging to Deputy Ziegler. It is just possible that the erring one is guilty of a mistake, in which event he may correct himself and please Mr. Ziegler by returning the umbrella.

Charles E. Barrow, who formerly conducted a hat store in this city, is now located at 99 Market street, San Francisco, and his store is one of the most elegant on the busy thoroughfare. Mr. Barrow is a first-class business man and his many friends in Astoria will be pleased to learn that he is doing an extensive business.

The republicans of Seaside yesterday held their convention for the purpose of nominating precinct officers and electing delegates to the county convention, which meets in Astoria April 9. M. J. Young was chairman of the meeting and C. J. Curtis secretary. M. J. Young was nominated for justice of the peace and A. E. Miller for constable. James Patterson was chosen to represent the precinct on the county committee. The delegates chosen to the county convention were: A. J. Stillwell, P. E. Dubois, A. A. Shellberg, R. S. Wood, M. J. Young and C. J. Curtis.

The Methodists want it understood that the program as it appeared in The Astorian yesterday will be rendered at the service this evening and not this morning, as some seem to believe. The members of the Sabbath school have prepared special exercises for the morning that are of high order and will be enjoyed doubtless by a large congregation. The usual Sunday school session will be dispensed with.

George Hansen, charged by Alfrida Lorenson with seduction, was yesterday bound over to await the action of the district attorney by Justice of the Peace Goodman. The examination, which had been deferred the previous day, was yesterday concluded, and the evidence adduced at the hearing was sufficient to warrant Justice Goodman in binding over the man. His bonds were fixed at $500, and he deposited the cash, thereby gaining his liberty.

Appreciating that they will not be permitted to vote for presidential electors unless they register, voters are showing more activity, and yesterday the clerks in the registration office were kept busily engaged. The registrations to date number 92, of which 315 are in the country precincts, and 609 in the city precincts. The registrations in the city by precincts are as follows: No. 1, 73; No. 2, 79; No. 3, 109; No. 4, 108; No. 5, 121; No. 6, 64; No. 7, 55.

Will Madison's new store was thrown open for public inspection last night for the first time, and all evening was crowded with persons. By all it was pronounced to be the finest store of the kind in the northwest. The arrangements are as convenient as money could make them, and Mr. Madison will, as heretofore, carry the best lines of goods. His new store is not only a marked tribute to his business enterprise, but as well a credit to the city in which he is the leading tobacconist.

The pleasing announcement is made by the ladies of the public library association that arrangements are now under way for the production here during the first week in May of the new opera "Belshazzar," which has recently been produced elsewhere with great success. The opera will be put on under the direction of Professor Robinson, who made such a success of the cantata "Queen Esther." It is the intention to employ all home talent. Mr. Robinson will be in Astoria on the 18th inst to complete the arrangements.

The police of the city have determined to put a stop to the practice of those lads who violate the curfew ordinance, and yesterday, in line with this policy, arrested a boy named Claude Norman, who had been found in a saloon. Norman has heretofore been under arrest. Yesterday he deposited $20 bail and when his case was called in the police court he failed to respond. The bail was declared forfeited. Hereafter all minors found upon the streets after 9 o'clock will be arrested, and boys caught in saloons at any hour of the day or night will be rounded up.

The republican primaries were held yesterday and the regular ticket was elected hands down. Publication of the news that an effort would be made to elect a set of belligerent delegates created a furore and the regulars got out a full vote. The belligerent ticket was sprung in the First and Second wards, but received no support. The anti-regular ticket contained the names of the following persons, and some unique campaign material was employed in the effort to get votes for it: First ward—G. O. Moen, J. A. Montgomery, M. F. Berendes, John Corno, T. D. Souden, R. M. Lowe, W. J. Barry, F. J. Carney, Joseph Palo, John Penttala, E. P. Parker, D. J. McVicar, F. Mason, Phil Hadden, H. W. Sherman, Robert McLean, and Chas. Lief. Second ward—Geo. A. Nelson, O. W. Peterson, F. J. Taylor, T. R. Davies, C. F. Johannsen, Peter Johnson, Jas. Robinson, M. Franciscovich, Swan

Wilson, Adolph Johnson, Ludwig Larson, A. C. Callan, Theo. Bracker, Aug. Danielson, P. Kearney, H. Morgan, and F. J. Scheidnagle.

"In declaring the strike against the Columbia River Packers' Association, the longshoremen's union of the city has declared a boycott on the Alaska Fishermen's Union," said Secretary Lornsen last night. "I regret very much that this course has been taken by the longshoremen's officers. The fishermen signed by the association belong to the union and under the recognized regulations have the right to load and unload coastwise vessels. The fishermen-sailors should have loaded the bark Harry Morse and the longshoremen had no right to interfere with them, or even to demand that they be permitted to do the work. The action of the union is equivalent to a boycott against the fishermen's union. As such unfair conduct is calculated to hurt unionism, I sincerely hope the trouble will be adjusted at once."

Councilman George Kaboth, Mrs. Kaboth and children returned yesterday from a 50-week European tour. While away Mr. Kaboth visited all parts of Germany and Switzerland and many other points of interest in Europe. He reports that his trip was an unusually enjoyable one, but, while he enjoyed himself immensely, he is glad to be back in Astoria. "You, know, there's no place like Astoria," Mr. Kaboth said, "and, while a trip to the old world has its charms for everyone, I am really happy to be home again." Mr. Kaboth says he made particular inquiry as to the salmon business in Germany and found that Columbia river salmon was an article of diet that had created for itself a very strong market. The Germans have taken a great fancy to Astoria fish, and the pickled salmon market is becoming more extensive all the time. The demand is very brisk and will grow steadily, Mr. Kaboth says. He intends making another trip abroad next year.

H. J. Prentiss yesterday met many of the prominent dairymen of the county and talked over with them the proposition for the establishment in this city of a milk condensary. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and all the ranchers in attendance expressed themselves as desirous of lending every possible assistance to the venture. Mr. Prentiss told what had been accomplished elsewhere for the dairying interests and said he was satisfied even better results could be attained in this county. Nothing definite was decided upon at yesterday's meeting, but it was agreed that another meeting should be held shortly, when plans for the organization of the company will be announced. Meantime Mr. Prentiss and his associates will interview all of those interested in the up-building of the dairying interests and arrange matters so final action may be taken. That the condensary will be secured for the city is now assured, and Astorians will soon be afforded an opportunity of patronizing another home concern.

EAGLES! EAGLES! Today at 2 p. m.

Yourself and your families will be treated to divine music, heavenly fruit, sea-foam, baked beans, and other delicacies too numerous to mention. Don't mention it; you're welcome.

The indications are that more than $4000 worth of city work will be awarded by the council tomorrow night to Portland contractors. Yesterday the street committee opened tenders for the improvement of Fifteenth street, where cement sidewalks are to be built from Exchange south to Irving avenue, and Ninth street, which is to be repaved from Bond to Franklin received for the Fifteenth street improvement: C. G. Palmberg, $1320; J. A. Fastabend, $1485; J. O. McGuire, $1211.25; Marshal Bros., of Portland, $1273.50; Mason & Dill, of Portland, $1266.60. The surveyor's estimate of the cost of the work was $1532.10. McGuire's bid was the lowest, but Marshal Bros. claim the contract because of the failure of McGuire to specify corners. The bid of Mason & Dill was the next lowest, but the contractors neglected to sign their bid, although their bond was properly signed. The committee decided to make no recommendation, but to ask the city attorney for an opinion. The bids presented for the Ninth street improvement were as follows: S. S. Dill, of Portland, $3,183.58; C. G. Palmberg, $3,312; J. A. Fastabend, $3405. The estimate of the cost of the work by the city surveyor was $3554.08. The committee recommended that the contract be awarded to Dill.
